Awarded Kahurangi for 2015

Te Wharekura o Te Rangi Aniwaniwa Kahurangi (Head Girl) for 2015 Te Reinga Patuwairua of Waimanoni shows her appreciation to her whanau and others for supporting her through the years.

Daughter of Tarei and Trudy Patuwairua, Te Reinga is the second youngest of 5 Siblings.

Next year she has her eyes set to study Law and Arts at the University of Auckland where her interests include constitutional law. She tells of her hopes to own her own business and work for her Iwi in the future.

Te Reinga was also the recipient for NgaiTakoto's Leadership Award in 2014, nominated for her great leadership qualities that she possesses and demonstrates amongst her peers.

At just 16years, she has represented Te Tai Tokerau in various sporting events as well as being a Youth Representative for Make It Happen Te Hiku which discusses and designs social development services intended to improve the wellbeing of whanau and communities in the Far North.

NgaiTakoto's 3rd Annual Festival 26th – 28th December 2014

Friday 26th

This year's approach to the sporting activities drew more attention towards Whanaungatanga and had changes put in place to ensure that all participants were able to compete in a family friendly environment. Although the competitiveness was still brought to the "battle fields" it was all in good fun. Basketball started off the festival's sporting activities following Friday Afternoon's powhiri with a variety of divisions to cater for all age groups, the over 40's match being the highlight of the night having spectators as well as players in fits of laughter. The night ended with the final play off between both Mahimaru and Wharemaru Marae teams with Mahimaru taking the night's win.

Saturday 27th

Saturday saw the morning start off with a 8am breakfast at the Awanui Rugby Fields before the day's activities commenced, all sports were this year Marae integrated as a way to promote Whanaungatanga amongst all participants and was our key message throughout the weekend. Saturday's activities included Netball, Touch and Softball and new to this year's Sports Programme was Kiwi Tag, Tug-o-war and Nines League for the men. Our Tamariki were also able to enjoy a day full of activities including a bouncy castle, arts and crafts, and a variety of races. With a rolling lunch to cater throughout the day, participants were able to enjoy playing a combination of sports that definitely got the heart pumping.

A small Kapa Haka Roopu opened the Awards night held at Te Ahu Centre where guest speaker Graham Lowe presented recipients with their achievement awards, along with the NgaiTakoto Festival Sporting outcomes for the year 2014.

Dinner itself was a delicious selection of entrées, seafood and a mains buffet that served a variety of hot and cold platters followed by a number of sweet tooth desserts to satisfy everyone.

Auckland based band Allegro now playing in its 12th year with regular performances in some of Auckland's hot spots, graced us with the night's entertainment which brought an end to the sporting activities that took place earlier in the day.

Sunday 28th

Church Service at Matarau was followed by lunch at Lake Ngatu where participants enjoyed the company of each other or competing in Waka Ama races on the lake, Our Tamariki were also able to put their fitness to the test by taking part in the Splash and Dash which was the end to a absolute sports crazed three day weekend that left whanau eager for 2015.
